Tuesday's Elections.

The result of Tuesday's elections is of the utmost significance in that it indicates most clearly the disposition of the American people in regard to a further continuation of power in the hands of the Republican party. For nearly thirteen years that party has held possession of the government, and how fearfully they have abused their power is painfully manifest in the many illegal and dishonest acts which disgrace our country. The introduction and passage of the "back pay" act by the Republicans of the last Congress, and the endorsing of it by their President, right on the heels of the magnificent promises of "civil service reform" so solemnly made by them last fall; the great Credit Mobilier scandal, participated in by many of the leading, representative men of that party; the Northern Pacific railroad land swindle; the degrading condition of many of the Southern States, which, though nearly eight years have elapsed since the war ended, are still ground down by the iron heel of Radical despotism and robbed by carpet-bag minions of the Administration party; all these things have had their weight in turning the political scale in favor of the Democratic party. Men have grown tired of corruption in high places. They have become weary of having the public treasury robbed and the public property applied to illegal and unworthy objects, and as the reins of government are in the hands of the Republican party, it is held responsible by the people for all the corruption that exists in public affairs. Tuesday's result shows most conclusively the weariness of the people with that party. We may fairly hope, now, that the day of power of that most corruptible organization is rapidly drawing to a close. It's downfall and complete overthrow would be a cause of great rejoicing to the thinking, law-abiding people of every State.

The result of the elections is exceedingly gratifying to the Democracy, in that the battle was fought under no false colors, but was waged on true, time-honored Democratic principles. As in Ohio, so in Virginia, Maryland and New York, the Democracy went into the contest under the "old flag" of straight-out, unyielding, uncompromising Democratic principles, seeking no aid from, making no alliances with, nor truckling to, dissatisfied men of other parties. And the result is splendid Democratic victories "all along the line." Last year New York gave Gen. Grant nearly 54,000 over Mr. Greeley, and this year she rolls up a Democratic majority of over 15,000. In Virginia Grant had a majority of about 2,000, while Maryland gave Mr. Greeley only 925 majority. This year the Conservatives have carried Virginia by a majority of nearly 30,000, and Maryland by 20,000. What has caused the mighty change? The answer is manifest: The people are tired and disgusted with Radical misrule and official corruption. Their eyes are being opened and they are coming to their right minds. The war excitement, and the prejudice against "secessionists" and "rebels" is wearing away, and people are beginning to allow their minds to exercise their right functions, and so they reflect upon the past and remember the proud and honorable position the United States occupied among the nations of the earth; the honesty with which the government was administered, and the infrequency of corruption among public officials, under the patriotic rule of the Democratic party in former times, and compare it with the rule of the party now in power, weighed down as it is with fraud and dishonesty, they are turning to the Democratic party for relief from the sloughs into which the Radicals have led them. The success of their ticket at the polls is not the only cause of rejoicing to the Democracy. There is another and equally as fruitful a matter for congratulation in the powerful manifestation given last Tuesday that the absurd blunder of 1872 has not had the injurious effect upon the Democratic party that its enemies so confidently hoped, and its friends feared it would.—The confidence of the people in the party of Jefferson, Jackson, and Taney, is not destroyed, and as the temporary brilliancy of the false promises held out to them by the "Young America" party of "progress and reform" no longer dazzle their eyes, they are returning to the fold of the Constitutional and time tried Democracy.

The triumph of the Virginia Conservatives [illegible] of rejoicing to [illegible] the supremacy [illegible] cash the manner [illegible] of the South [illegible] of the [illegible] have been [illegible] the [illegible] dition of things in their own State should the Radicals obtain the control of the State government, they nevertheless went into the contest and waged the battle on the ground of principle, as opposed to policy, and of the supremacy of their own race, carrying banners upon which was emblazoned the motto, "White men shall rule Virginia." Nobly they fought and brilliant was their victory. Even as the Democracy of Delaware, who fought the fight of 1870 on the principle of white man supremacy, were overwhelmed with surprise at the magnitude of their victory, so the Virginians are surprised at the completeness of their triumph on Tuesday.

A NOTICE THAT IS NOT A LEGAL ONE.—Under the above caption the Wilmington Gazette makes a very poor and exceedingly lame attempt to prove that a Hotel keeper in Brandywine Hundred did not comply with the requirements of the law in publishing the notice of his intention to apply for license in the TRANSCRIPT. No doubt had the said notice been published in the Gazette it would have been perfectly right in the eyes of the unselfish editor, of that paper. The act of assembly says that the applicant shall publish his notice three times in two papers published in the county. But asks the Gazette, "is he letting his neighbors know?" Probably that applicant's neighbors know fully as much about his intentions as the neigbors of those do in the lower part of the county who advertised in the Gazette But the caption of the Gazette's article says the notice is not legal. That journal will greatly oblige the public if it will point out what portion of the law was not complied with, or in what particular the notice is not legal. Unless it can do this it would save its credit by contradicting the assertion made last Saturday, and by being more careful in the future about making such unwarranted assertions.

The Stringency.

HOW IT HAS AFFECTED PHILADELPHIA.

With a view to ascertaining a correct account of the effect produced upon the business interests of Philadelphia by the late panic and the present stringency of the money market, a reporter of the Inquirer, of that city, recently visited a number of the leading firms in the Dry Goods trade and made inquiries concerning the prices of goods at the present time.

The following is an extract from a conversation with Mr. Charles Sharpless, of the firm of Sharpless & Sons:

REPORTER—Have prices depressed much?

MR. SHARPLESS.—In some goods there has been a reduction of from ten to thirty per cent. Take merinoes, for instance. Last season there was great demand for "sages" and "greens" (colors), and having only that preference to guide them in ordering for the present season, immense stocks of these colors have been ordered by merchants. The demand turns out to be for a reverse color, "cloth blues" and "azuline blues" being most looked for. The consequence is that the other colors, of which there is a superabundance, are unsalable and have fallen in price.

REPORTER.—Then such a fall in price is not entirely ascribable to the panic?

MR. SHARPLESS.—Not entirely. Always at this season there is some abatement of the kind, but a scarcity of money, or rather a fear to part with it on the part of those who would otherwise be the purchasers of such goods, makes them fall so much lower.

REPORTER.—How about staple goods?

MR. SHARPLESS.—With the exception of a slight reduction in cotton goods, staple or desirable goods hold their own.

REPORTER.—Then there has not been a "grand tumble of fifty per cent." in the general prices?

Mr. Sharpless smiled and said, "Not quite, with the exception of the slight fall in cotton goods, which I referred to, there has been no material change in prices for desirable goods." To a question concerning New York houses and prices, the gentleman said that there is no difference between the affairs of the trade in the two cities. He had attended a large sale in New York a few days ago, and found that while there was a falling off of from ten to thirty per cent in undesirable goods, the desirable lines sold firm at full prices.

Other Dry Goods Firms

Were applied to, and the result confirmed the information kindly given by Mr. Sharpless. Among those called upon was the firm of Messrs John W. Thomas & Co., one of the members of which said that no little of the confusion now prevailing in the dry goods and other business is caused by dealers themselves, who, departing from a wise system of liberal but legitimate advertising, resort to claptrap falsehoods, and give the community a wrong impression, which in the end, results very harmfully. Referring to a recent announcement which found place in some of the newspapers of this city, to the effect that A. T. Stewart had reduced prices 50 P cent., the gentleman said—"Every business man of course, knows that was, to call it by a plain term, simply a lie. Like all other firms in the same trade, there was no doubt a heavy reduction by Stewart, of prices for undesirable goods, but ordinarily speaking, his prices were almost unchanged otherwise, as was proved by a member of the trade in this city, who went through Stewar's the other day, and made inquiry as to prices.

The trouble on the East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia railroad is unadjusted. The striking engineers will not allow freight trains to move. No freight has been carried over the road since Friday. The mail trains run regularly. Great inconvenience is caused to merchants by their inability to receive and ship goods. Several thousand bales of cotton have been lying at Knoxville for four days.

Local and State Affairs.

Delaware City Items

[From our Del. City Correspondent.]

PAINFUL ACCIDENT.—Mr. Chas. Alexander, of the firm of Alexander & Bro. carriage builders, of this city, met with a very serious and painful accident on Thursday, 30th ult. He had been out gunning and on returning home the gun was accidentally discharged, the whole lead passing through his left arm close to the shoulder. The arm had to be amputated at the shoulder joint. The operation was performed by Dr. John Black, of New Castle, assisted by Dr. Kemp, of this city. The many friends of Mr. A. will be pleased to learn that he is doing well, and that there is some hope of his recovery.

A FAIR AND FESTIVAL will be held in St. Georges on the 9th, 10th and 11th of December next, for the benefit of St. Georges Presbyterian church, under the auspices of the Young people's Association. It is expected that this fair will far exceed anything of the kind ever before held in St. Georges. Large contributions of valuable articles are expected from the cities. We hope, and feel confident, from the different committees appointed, that the affair will be a success.

FIRST COMMUNION.—Eighty one children, forty-five girls and thirty six boys, partook of their first Communion at St. Paul's Church on Sunday, 12th ult. The address to the children and their parents, by Bishop Becker, of Wilmington, was very pathetic. The girls were dressed in white and wore white vails.

WITHDRAWN.—On Friday, the 31st ult., the fast and commodious steamer, "Perry," of the Salem, Delaware City and Philadelphia line, stopped running for the season. The "Major Reybold" will continue running until prevented by the ice and bad weather. After this week, however, she will make but one trip a day.

SIGNS OF A HARD WINTER.—During the past week a number of flocks of wild geese have passed over this place in a Southern direction, from which circumstance our seers predict an early and severe winter.

BIG POTATOES.—We were shown, last week, some potatoes of the "Peerless" variety, the largest we ever saw. One weighed 26 oz., and another 2½ lbs; grown by Mr. Simeon Lord of Pier House, below this city.

NEW HOUSE.—Thomas & Son, carpenters and builders, are erecting a house, on the corner of third and Jefferson Sts., 23 ft front by 48ft back, with stabling attached, for Mr. Thomas Murray.

BUSINESS CHANGE.—Messrs. Clark & Irving, of this city, have disposed of their interests in the grain and commission business to Mr. Owen Eagle. We wish Mr. E. abundant success.

LARGE PUMPKIN.—A few days since we were shown a pumpkin that weighed 71 lbs, raised by Dr. Arrett, of Fort Delaware.

A REVIVAL is in progress in the M. E. Church, of this place, Rev. Dr. Thomas, pastor. Considerable interest is manifested.

Odessa Items.

[From our Odessa Correspondent.]

Our citizens were aroused from their old ways of quiet and repose on Friday evening by the young "larks" of our town turning out in full force to celebrate Hallow-eve, doing their usual mischief, and serenading us with the most hideous conglomerations of sounds ever made by fish-horns, bells, trumpets, cornets, tin pans, old boilers and every conceivable shape of iron and tin kitchen utensils, accompanied with the bark of dogs and the wild screeching of children which lasted far into the quiet hours of the night, but all had settled away before the rising of the morning sun.

There has been some doubt as to who has been acting agent for the We Rust & Co's. spinning wheel, but the doubt was removed by a friend who informs us that the agency is in the posession of Right Worthy D. Clinton Legg, formerly of our town, who will have the same on exhibition in St. Georges next week and there delineate its fine qualities to the people.

The street lamps with their lured light, have not yet been brought into requisition in the great scientific scheme of lighting our dark and gloomy streets, which design, if carried out, will be quite a novelty for "our city fathers" to expatiate upon.

Mr R Mailly with several of his gentleman friends, has returned home from a trip down the bay in his yacht, bringing with them, as tokens of their good fortune, a goodly supply of oysters and game, and also the blessings of good health.

There has been a very interesting, and we hope a very profitable, series of meetings going on in the M. E. Church this week. Several conversions have taken place and it is to be hoped much good will be done.

The usual temperance meeting was held on Thursday evening.

The Buell family gave an exhibition of their musical talent on Friday evening.

The Buell Family's Concert.

The concert in the M E. Church by the "Buell Family" to night promises to be one of great merit, and offers to our citizens a rare opportunity to enjoy good music. The Buells have visited many town and cities and are everywhere spoken of in terms of the highest commendation. The following letter addressed to one of our citizens by a gentleman well and favorably known to the readers of the TRANSCRIPT is but one of many testimonials paid to the excellency of the concerts given by this talented family:

Westminster, Md., November 4th, 1873.

THOS. E. HUBS, Esq.—Dear Sir:—The "Buell Family" Concerts are of a highly entertaining and moral character, and well worthy of the patronage of the people. Their concerts have given great satisfaction, and wherever they have been these "sweet singers" have captivated all hearts.

Very truly yours,

H. VANDERFORD.

New Advertisements.

James T. Shallcross, Esq, proprietor of the Diamond State nurseries, advertises 100,000 peach trees, and a large stock of other fruit, shade and ornamental trees for sale at his nurseries Mr. Shallcross is a thoroughly practical farmer, fruit-grower and nurseryman, and his representations can be relied upon. Persons who buy trees of him need have no fear of being cheated.

S. M. Reynolds offers "new goods direct from the manufacturers and jobbers at panic prices for cash." Mr. R. has on hand a large and full stock of desirable fall and winter goods of all kinds which he is offering very low for cash. Read his new advertisement.

E. F. Perkins, Trustee, advertises the "Forest farm" of the late John B. Morton, deceased, near Morton's station on the Townsend Branch R. R. to be sold at Public Sale at Masseys Md., on the 22d of November.

Those Big Potatoes.

A short time ago Mr. E. R. Cochran sent us a basket of fine large potatoes of the Peerless variety. They were so large that 18 of them filled a peach basket full, and nearly everybody who saw them assured us "they were not good for anything, as they were hollow, or had false hearts" and all that. We took them home, however, and had them cooked day after day until all were used, and out of the whole basket there was not one that was not perfectly sound and good. We never had better potatoes in our life. There are many varieties of potatoes that are said to be rotting rapidly this fall, but no such charge can be brought against the "Peerless." They are all right.

Poneyville Lectures.

We invite the attention of our readers to the advertisement of the Lecture to be delivered in the Town Hall, on the evening of the 4th of December, by Wm. L. Dennis, Esq., of Philadelphia. These lectures are said to be very humorous and entertaining. Mr. D. brings strong recommendations from the Press and leading men in Phila., and other cities and towns, and we bespeak for him a cordial reception, and good house, among our people.

New Draw.

The P. W. & B. R. R. Co. is building at its shops in this city a new draw for the Del. R R. bridge over the canal. It will be of the same length and width of the old draw, and being finished here will be conveyed to the canal and there put together.—Commercial.

Gubernatorial.

Capt. Wm. Thatcher has been mentioned by the Democrats of the Ninth ward of Wilmington in connection with Gubernatorial honors. From what little we know of the captain we think he wouldn't make a bad governor.

Shooting Affair at Masseys.

On Tuesday, election day, a disturbance took place at the polls at Masseys' Kent Co. in which a man and a negro were shot. The particulars as we learned them are about as follows:—A negro man, probably drunk either from whiskey or political frenzy, had a pistol, which he was flourishing around, swearing he would shoot any d——d white s——n of a b— who dared to interfere with him. Mr. Joseph Boyer, who was standing near him, went toward the negro to make him behave himself when the negro fired upon him, the ball striking him in the head, making an ugly, but we are glad to say, not dangerous wound. The crowd of men rushed toward the negro to arrest him. A brother of the negro undertook to defend him, and attacked Capt. Jack Spear with a club. Capt Jack then drew his pistol and fired upon the negro, upon which the colored troop no longer "fought bravely" but took to his heels but too late to escape a bullet from the captain's revolver, which struck him on the back of the neck. This negro was captured but the first aggressor is still at large or was when we last heard from the scene of action.

After this occurrence the "colored citizens" seeing they couldn't get to shoot any white man they chose at their leisure, grew afraid, or sulky, and said they wouldn't vote any more, but the whites told them they didn't wish to interfere with them in that respect, and withdrew from the polls leaving them clear for the negroes. This had the desired effect and everything from that time on moved on very quietly and pleasantly, the whites and negroes voting alternately, an hour at a time.

Private Debates.

Damon Lodge, K. of P. have recently organized a private Debating club among themselves. The first debate will take place at their next regular meeting. Subject, "Would it be beneficial to secret organigations to admit females?" Disputants, Affirmative, C. T. Stratton, J. H. Scendrick; Negative, E. B. Rice, T. H. Gilpin, Wm H. Barr.

Every Evening.

The Every Evening came to us on Thursday evening in an entire new dress and, of course, looks very much better for the change. It's appearance is very much improved thereby. We congratulate our neighbor on this evident token of its increasing prosperity.

Middletown Ethiopian Serenaders.

We are informed that the Amateur Minstrel Troupe of this town will give an entertainment in the Town Hall on the 20th inst., for the benefit of the Diamond State Brass Band.

Maryland Affairs.

Charles and Ida Revell, children of captain Revell, at Fairmount, Somerset county, on Tuesday of last week, in the absence of their mother, obtained a coal oil can, poured the contents into the fire, and they were soon enveloped in flames, in which condition they were found on the return of Mrs. Revell. Charlie lingered in great torture until the following Thursday, when he died. Ida was still alive at last accounts, but it was thought she could not recover from her injuries.

On Saturday night, 25th ult., the barn and stable of Mrs. Jonathan Williamson, residing near Bridgetown, Queen Anne's county, was destroyed by fire, together with two horses, a load of corn, wheat, farming implements, and provender. A man named William Campbell was a rested and lodged in jail as the incendiary.

The dedication of the Wye Methodist Protestant church, in Queen Anne's county, has been postponed until the 23d of November, in consequence of the building not being far enough advanced to dedicate on the day appointed, the 9th.

Hogs, in great numbers, are dying in Bucktown and a joining districts in Dorchester county with cholera. A short time since the poultry in the same section was afflicted with a similar disease, of which great numbers died.

At Chesapeake City, Cecil county, on Saturday morning last, John Biddle, of Bay View, was thrown from his carriage and seriously injured: his recovery is doubtful.

A certain man went down from Chesapeake City unto Elkton, last week, and fell among thieves, who took him in and fleeced him, by the use of cards, of $150.

The Difference.

There's Jones, now, he never is needy,
But always has plenty of cash,
Just look at his clothes, they are "seedy,"
Tho' he bought them so lately of——Dash—
Whilst Brown, who is needy but clever,
Wears clothes that he purchased last Fall,
They wear well and look good as ever,
But he purchased his suit at Tower Hall.

Where the most desirable, reliable and stylish garments of every kind can be bought at prices made expressly low to meet these "hard times." Bennett & Co., Tower Hall, 518 Market street, Philadelphia.

WOMEN OUT OF EMPLOYMENT.—One of the effects of the existing money stringency is the discharge of large numbers of women from various employments in New York. The World of that city, after referring to the increase in the number of applications at the various institutions for the relief of destitute women, adds:

Already the number of women who walk the streets at night is perceptibly larger, and police officers declare that while on their beats they continually see new faces which they can tell belong to no hardened women of the town. One of this description appealed to a gentleman recently who recognized in her a former maid of his wife's, and she told him that she had been for more than twenty-four hours without food and only was induced to take such a step by the hope of getting food for her starving brother and sister at home. Similar instances are occurring nightly, and their number will increase in fearful ratio as the winter comes on. The results of retrenchment do not reach seamstresses and the other class referred to merely, but women in all phases of employment. Families that had two chambermaids are getting on with one, and those that had only one send away the nurse and give the chambermaid the care of the children. Shop girls are being dismissed from the stores in large numbers. The activity and quickness of woman is to her disadvantage in these cases. While it is rather difficult to make eight men do the work of ten half a dozen shop girls can, when pressed, do the work of almost twice that number, and shop-keepers are well posted enough to be aware of that feminine faculty. They dismiss the supernumerary half dozen.

WRECKED VESSELS.—The wrecks during October of vessels belonging to or bound to or from ports of the United States aggregate fifty-nine, the value of the vessels, exclusive of their cargoes, being $318,000. There was one steamer lost, the Missouri, of Liverpool, which was on a voyage from that port to New Orleans. Three ships were wrecked, one an American vessel, the Elizabeth Kimball, of San Francisco. The other wrecks were six barks, eleven brigs and thirty-eight schooners, of which two brigs and twenty-nine schooners were American vessels.

The Philadelphia singing societies have resolved to form a union for the centennial celebration, with the ultimate view of forming a union of all the singing societies in the United States for that occasion.

The Elections.

DEMOCRATIC VICTORIES AND GAINS.

DEMOCRATS JUBILANT REPUBLICANS CROSS.

NEW YORK, MARYLAND, VIRGINIA AND ILLINOS CARRIED BY THE DEMOCRATS.

Republicans Defeated in Wisconsin.

HEAVY DEMOCRATIC GAINS WHEREVER ELECTIONS WERE HELD.

RADICALISM "GONE UP."

NEW YORK.

The election in this State was for members of the Legislature, Secretary of State, Comptroller, Treasurer and other officers. The official returns come in slowly, but enough has been heard to make it certain that all the candidates for State offices on the Democratic ticket have been elected, and that the Empire State has given a Democratic majority of about 15,000 against a majority of 54,000 for Grant last year, making a total Democratic gain of nearly 70,000, which the World thinks is glory enough for one day. The majority in New York city for Wilkes, Dem. candidate for Secretary of State is 32,159.—The returns from the legislative districts are not sufficient to indicate the political complexion of the Legislature, but it is probable that the Republicans have a small majority.

MARYLAND.

The election was for Legislature, Comptroller, Clerk of the Court of Appeals and county officers. Increased Democratic majorities on the State ticket are reported. Messrs. Woolford and Franklin are elected by about 20,000 majority. Baltimore city gave 14,419 majority. The returns from the counties show that the Democrats have elected 23 members of the Senate and 68 members of the House of Delegates, while the Republicans have 3 Senators and, probably, 15 Delegates. Greeley's majority in the State last year was 925.

VIRGINIA.

The Old Dominion gave the Rads, Scalawags and Carpet-baggers another Bull Run defeat, creating a worse panic among their "colored" hordes than Beauregard and Johnson made among the troops of "Le Grand Armee" in 1861. From every quarter and on every side the Republicans met with overwhelming disaster and defeat. Walker's (Conservative) majority in 1871 was 18,000. Grant's majority last year was 1975. Last Tuesday the Conservative candidate for Governor, Gen Kemper, was elected by 30,000 majority. The magnitude of the triumph far exceeded the most ardent expectations of the Conservatives themselves, and their delight is unbounded. The Legislature is two-thirds Democratic.

WISCONSIN.

The election was for Governor, Legislature and other State officers. The Democrats made no nomination for Governor, but gave their support to the Independent candidate, Wm. R. Taylor. The returns indicate the election of Taylor by about 5,000 to 8,000 majority. The reformers (whatever they are) have a majority in the lower House of the Legislature.

ILLINOIS.

Returns indicate the election of the entire People's ticket over the regular Republican ticket by a majority of from 5,000 to 7,000. A heavy Farmers' vote was polled.

NEW JERSEY.

The election was for Legislature and county officers. The result was a Republican success. That party elects 37 members of the Assembly, and the Democrats 23, a Democratic gain of 8 members, but as the Republicans have a majority in each house the choice of a Republican to the U. S. Senate to succeed Senator Stockton is insured. That isn't so good: our rooster can't crow a bit over that.

MISSISSIPPI

Poor carpet-bag ridden State. Very little interest was shown in the election. The Democrats made no nominations, and let the two wings of the Radical party fight it out among themselves. Ames is elected governor by about 15,000 maj.

KANSAS.

Returns from 77 out the 100 Legislative districts of the State show the election of 54 anti-Republican candidates. The State has gone heavily against the Republicans.

MINNESOTA

Davis, the Republican candidate for Governor, is elected by 5,000 majority. The Farmers' candidate for State Treasurer is thought to be elected by a small majority.

MASSACHUSETTS

Washburn's (Rep.) majority is estimated at 13,000, against 70,000 for Grant last year.

MICHIGAN.

Reports very meagre. The election of a Democratic Congressman in the Fifth district is announced.

ATTEMPT TO BURN A CITY.—An attempt was made last Tuesday night to burn the city of LEBANON, PA. It was fired in five different places, but owing to the efficiency of the firemen the city was saved. A barn owned by Josiah Funck was entirely destroyed. Loss $75,000; insured. Also Henry Lauderswilk's barn, with all the season's crop and one hundred tons of hay. Loss $80,000.

THE SUN.

WEEKLY, SEMI-WEEKLY, AND DAILY.

THE WEEKLY SUN is too widely known to require any extended recommendation; but the reasons which have already given it fifty thousand subscribers, and which will, we hope, give it many thousands more, are briefly as follows:

It is a first-rate newspaper. All the news of the day will be found in it, condensed when unimportant, at full length when of moment, and always presented in a clear, intelligible, and interesting manner.

It is a first-rate family paper, full of entertaining and instructive reading of every kind, but containing nothing that can offend the most delicate and scrupulous taste.

It is a first-rate story paper. The best tales and romances of current literature are carefully selected and legibly printed in its pages.

It is a first-rate agricultural paper. The most fresh and instructive articles on agricultural topics regularly appear in this department.

It is an independent political paper, belonging to no party and wearing no collar. It fights for principle, and for the election of the best men to office. It especially devotes its energies to the exposure of the great corruptions that now weaken and disgrace our country, and threaten to undermine republican institutions altogether. It has no fear of knaves, and asks no favors from their supporters.

It reports the fashions for the ladies and the markets for the men, especially the cattle markets, to which it pays particular attention.

Finally, it is the cheapest paper published.—One dollar a year will secure it for any subscriber. It is not necessary to get up a club in order to have THE WEEKLY SUN at this rate. Any one who sends a single dollar will get the paper for a year. We have no travelling agents.

THE WEEKLY SUN.—Eight pages, fifty six columns. Only $1 00 a year. No discounts from this rate.

The Revenue and the Taxes.

Treasurer Spinner's report, published yesterday, exhibits a vast falling off in the receipts of the government during the last fiscal year from those of the previous twelve months. As Congress materially reduced taxes and duties a year ago it was to be expected that a falling off in receipts would be the immediate effects of that action. But just as taxation has been reduced, both the legitimate and illegitimate expenses of the government have increased. Every new year the machinery of governing becomes more costly, new offices are created, new officers and salaries provided for them, and a custom house clerk or gauger expects to get such compensation as would a few years ago have satisfied the modest wants of a Cabinet officer or judge of the Supreme Court. This, however, is not the worst feature of the business, for where there are so many public officers it is to be expected that there will be a few not altogether honest ones. But there are so many of the latter sort that it is getting to be a question where the honest ones are, and whether there is that wise care exercised in their selection which circumstances would seem to demand? It is almost impossible to take up a newspaper any more without finding a telegraphic account of some official guilty of defalcation. What the aggregate cost to the government is in the course of a year from this source, alone, is never exhibited in the Treasurer's reports, but it must necessarily be very considerable.

Mr. SPINNER dimly suggests that an increase of taxation may be necessary if it is determined by the government to continue the rapid extinguishment of the national debt. The people have never been satisfied that the government was not paying the debt too rapidly, injuring, thereby, the prosperity of the country. So much is due abroad that the government has, since the close of the war, been depleting our resources and swelling those of distant nations. It is true that when we needed the money those nations lent it to us, but they lent it upon most extravagant terms, and they would be better satisfied to be unpaid than paid. They do not want the principal, but the interest, and we have been, at our own great cost, compelling them to receive the principal against their will.

It is folly to talk of increased taxes. The country is too greatly taxed already. Instead of more taxation there should be less, and, if the affairs of the government are wisely and honestly conducted, any increase would be superfluous. But there is no attempt made to economize—to render defalcation and embezzlement uncommon by the selection of men capable and of undoubted integrity. No measures are suggested to stop the extravagance and fraud; they go on, and, as if to put no bar to them, increased taxes are advised. Although the recent State elections show the feeling against the policy of the government it seems not to have reached Mr. SPINNER.

The history of the financial department of the government since the war can be best described by the one word, Drain—drain, drain, drain all the time, until at last business being overtaxed, falls under the load, and what is called a panic sweeps over the land like a hurricane. There is no necessity for paying the debt as rapidly in the future as in the past, and when this fact is recognized it will be found there is no necessity to increase taxation.—Phila Inquirer.

There was considerable excitement and despondency of feeling created in the New York financial circles on Wednesday by the announcement that paper endorsed by the great Pennsylvania railroad king, Col Tom Scott, had gone to protest. It was thought by many that this would somewhat damage the credit of the Penn. R R. Co, but the announcement is confidently made that the Company had nothing whatever to do with the protested paper and that is not at all affected or injured in the least. Those who profess to know say that the semi-annual dividend of the company will be paid in December.

REV. STUART ROBINSON'S VINDICATION.—Dr Stuart Robinson, of Louisville, Ky., has recovered $25 000 damages against the Chicago Post for publishing that he advocated the propagation of yellow fever through the North during the late war by means of infected clothing. The judgment, however, contained the stipulation that he remit the entire amount, less $664, the receipt of which in open court was therein also acknowledged.

EARLY BEATRICE PEACH.
RIPENS FULLY TWO WEEKS EARLIER THAN ANY OTHER KNOWN VARIETIES OF PEACH.
This variety has been well tested in large orchards and hundreds of bushels of this variety put on our market in 1872 and 1873, and on this, the severest test it could have, it has proved even better than all that has been claimed for it. It is full two weeks earlier than Hale's Early, and free from rot, and the Commission Merchants of Philadelphia and New York not only say it is one of the earliest and best peaches, but one of the best shipping peaches that goes on these markets, and brings more than double the price of any other peach.
I also offer 10 or 12 other new and well tested early and late peaches which will make the season for shipping some four weeks longer. By planting my new late varieties the canning houses can run from one to two weeks longer.
Price List sent free with testimonials and discription showing exact rotation in the ripening of all the new and popular kinds from early to late so that all can plant that they may ship every day from first to last of ripening. Address which can be cured by a timely resort to this standard preparation, as has been proved by the hundreds of testimonials received by the proprietors. It is acknowledged by many prominent physicians to be the most reliable preparation ever introduced for the relief and cure of all Lung complaints, and is offered to the public, sanctioned by the experience of over forty years. When resorted to in season it seldom fails to effect a speedy cure in the most severe cases of Coughs, Bronchitis, Croup, Whooping Cough, Influenza, Asthma, Colds, Sore Throat, Pains or Soreness in the Chest and Side, Liver Complaint, Bleeding at the Lungs, &c. Wistar's Balsam does not dry up a Cough, and leave the cause behind, as is the case with most preparations, but it loosens and cleanses the lungs, and allays irritation, thus removing the cause of the complaint.

THE GREAT REMEDY FOR
